Dear Ms Dortch,

Along with this public comment I would like to add that you tell the Broadcasters that the majority of the public have a "ho hum" attitude toward the Media for all the sex and violence. Most of them have turned the television off and found some other form of entertainment. They have turned a deaf ear on us for so long we have finally decided to tune them out.

Ms Dortch, I would greatly appreciate your forwarding my message to the Media, all forms of it, and especially the television networks.

Thanking you and awaiting your reply, I am

Sincerely,

Mrs. Patricia Vrchlavsky

that you ~~oppose~~ their proposed changes — and remind them that they don't work for the entertainment industry's millionaire bosses, but for the American people!

Public Comment: FCC Proceeding 13-86

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The FCC must continue to vigorously oppose ALL indecent content, even if brief or “fleeting.”

The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and profanity on FCC-licensed stations.
